Missions

St Pauls has two Mission trips on the near horizon.

First we have the youth Mission Trip to Rochester NY. They will be leaving on the 21st of July and returning the 28th. There is still room in the van! Sign up and be a missionary!

Next St. Paul's has the opportunity to serve with Cypress Missions on a trip to South Dakota. St. Paul's has supported the Pine Ridge Indian reservation earlier this spring after devastating flooding. The trip will leave on or about August 8th for one week.

If interested in serving please contact Hector or Doug Buechler (973 495 4377)

July Communion Offering will be going to Support Matt and Erin Kay.

They are living in NYC serving with CRU.

A little information on Matthew and Erin Kay and their work with Cru.

Matt's work with Cru will be to serve as a part of the pastoral team at Hope East Village—equipping others to bear witness to the gospel of Jesus through teaching, mentoring, and shared ministry in the neighborhood. Erin will also continue to mentor, teach, and equip women through Cru's work in serving New York City's Millennials.

"God Bless The USA"

Lee Greenwood

If tomorrow all I have was gone and all I hoped to see
And I had to start again with just my friends and family
I'd thank my lucky stars to be livin' here today
'Cause the flag still stands for freedom and they can't take that away

And I'm proud to be an American where at least I know I'm free
And I won't forget the men who died, who gave that right to me
And I'd gladly stand up next to you and defend her still today
'Cause there ain't no doubt I love this land
God bless the USA

From the lakes of Minnesota, to the hills of Tennessee
Across the plains of Texas, from sea to shining sea
From Detroit down to Houston and New York to LA
Well, there's pride in every American heart
And it's time we stand and say

That I'm proud to be an American where at least I know I'm free
And I won't forget the men who died, who gave that right to me

Exciting Pantry News!!!!

St. Paul's Food Pantry is now open to the public!

UNFORTUNATELY, hunger is very real in Ocean County. Every day, 1 in 10 of our neighbors does not have enough to eat. Hunger knows no age barrier. Young families face budget gaps as much as our senior communities deal with financial emergencies. Almost 5 million people over age 60 experience food insecurity. They face a number of unique medical and mobility challenges that put them at a greater risk of “skipping” meals. With the high cost of maintenance drugs, many people are forced to choose between paying for groceries and buying medicine—a difficult choice with potentially severe health implications.

No one should ever go hungry...

FORTUNATELY, our food pantry is now available to everyone. Because of the support of our congregation we are now focusing on opening our doors to anyone with food needs. The generosity of St. Paul's parishioners will enable the pantry to feed more of our neighbors with food insecurities; many of whom are going through a one-time crisis of divorce, a job layoff or simply have certain months when obligations can't be met. The food pantry is here to help anyone that would benefit, be it one time or once a month. Perhaps, you know of a neighbor that may need groceries, but reluctant to ask for help. Together, with God's guidance, we can help them. We will be open to the public on the first Wednesday and the first Thursday of every month, from 3:30 pm until 5:30 pm.
